

ANDRES ARMEDA

858.774.1095 • dre@armeda.com

EXECUTIVE PROFILE

Energetic and results-oriented information architect, technology professional, creative designer, and executive with global business experience. Accomplished people and project manager, skilled in developing and maintaining a broad vision, cultivating excellent relationships, and communicating effectively across the organization to build focused and productive teams. Demonstrated ability to conceptualize and deliver complex technology solutions. Fluent in Spanish.

EXPERIENCE

SECURE-I / SECURE INTEGRATIONS Des Plaines, IL 2007 to 2009
Start-up company providing professional-quality, on-demand video surveillance solution. Secure-i Hosted Video Recorder is a hosted video platform requiring no client side administration or maintenance for small businesses and residences.

Director of Technology

Report to CEO and COO. Senior information architect. Hands on IT manager, and direct staffs of outsourced development and design firm and off-site data facility.

- Researched and developed network architecture for creating fully hosted on-demand solution that could house 1000's of users.
- Designed graphics, hand coded and modified PHP/xHTML/CSS front end, and Implemented first demonstration server of AXIS Subscriber Technology Services (AXIS STS - Hosted Video Platform) in U.S. With budget of $400,000, assembled development/design team, researched and established relationship with top tier data center facility and implemented data center network team.
- Led rapid development and implementation of multi-tier, on-demand web architecture for hosted video recording system (HVR) based on LAMP environment.
- Created marketing strategies, including developing company websites (www.secure-i.com), and (www.secure-integrations.com) , corporate logo's, branding, marketing materials and print collaterals increasing website traffic by nearly 300% over a four-month period.
- Engineered the largest indoor mesh deployment of its time using Firetide Technologies. The network consisted of 32 Nodes, 60+ cameras, mobile devices, and Video Analytics.

APPLIED WATCH TECHNOLOGIES Crystal Lake, IL 2007
Offered open source powered security appliances in all major vertical markets within information security. Endace Limited acquired applied Watch Technologies in October 2007.

Vice President, Engineering

Senior information architect. Managed IT staff, all internal network assets, Sales Engineer Team, Quality Assurance Team and Network Operations Team. Created website and marketing materials. Reported to CEO and COO.

- Designed and constructed company website based on custom graphics, PHP/xHTML/CSS template and Wordpress. Created company marketing materials and print collateral. Realized 200% website traffic increase over eight months as a result.
- Developed all Applied Watch products' Graphical User Interface and usable visual experience. Worked with Java Developers to integrate the new GUI into the Applied Watch Command Center for major release 2007.
- Captured multiple contracts totaling more than $200,000. Managed T&M contracts for installation, training, services including AOL, 1800flowers.com and Cricket Coms.

UNITED STATES NAVY

1995 – 2007

Navy and Marine Corps Intranet San Diego, CA

Network Manager

2006 – 2007

First Class Petty Officer working directly with EDS on Navy and Marine Corps Intranet (NMCI), the world's largest network containing over 700,000 active users. Managed team of 20 network engineers.

- Supervised technical troubleshooting for enterprise, peripheral and user level issues ensuring minimum down time and achieving 100% customer satisfaction.
- Directed network software and hardware corrective actions for Local Area Networks (LAN) and Metropolitan Area Networks (MAN) minimizing user and network down time and increasing efficiency and workflow.
- Administered 200 clients in a secure Windows Environment to include Domain Controllers, Back up Servers, Exchange Servers and FTP servers. Implemented Department of Defense Information Assurance Certification and Accreditation Process.
- Managed 8-person information assurance team bringing full National Security Agency and Defense Information Systems Agency compliance across 3 enclaves servicing over 20,000 customers.

NCTAMS Eurcent Naples (Lago Patria), Italy

Operations Manager

2001 – 2005

Directed all operational, technical, and administrative training of a 36-person department while routinely advising senior management on technical issues.

- Effectively handled over $30 million dollars of installations and development from project inception through operational testing and certification process.
- Revised the departmental training program resulting in 99% average circuit availability and 100% customer satisfaction.

ADDITIONAL NAVY EXPERIENCE

As IT for Commanding and Executive Officer in VFA-147 (1999-2001), conducted NT Network Administration and Client/Server side support on local and remote servers.

As Personnelman in Personnel Support Detachment (1995-1999) performed career management, selection and interviewing, personnel record maintenance, and benefit administration for enlisted people.

CERTIFICATION and EDUCATION

Microsoft Certified Professional 70-210 | 70-290 | 70-291
CompTIA Security+ SY0-101 Firetide Certified Mesh Engineer

BA Information Systems Security and Project Management Capella University
Ongoing studies, anticipated graduation 2009

NAVY TRAINING

Journeyman-Networking Core Fleet Training Center, San Diego, CA 2006
Satellite Communications (SATCOM) Operator United States Navy, Ft. Gordon, GA 2001
Information Systems Technician School United States Navy, Great Lakes, IL 2001

AWARDS and RECOGNITION

Sailor of the Year
5 Navy/Marine Corps Achievement Medals
3 Navy Good Conduct Medals
Selected three times as Sailor of the Quarter

Government Security Clearance: Top Secret with SCI eligibility (Inactive but eligible)